Alice was born in LaMoure County, North Dakota on September 8, 1911, the daughter of Matt and Martha Sandness. She grew up on the family farm, graduating from LaMoure High School and attended Jamestown College and Valley City College. Alice became a teacher and taught in rural schools and at Dickinson High School. In 1947, she married Eddie Fisher and the couple moved to the Fisher family farm north of Dickinson. In 1998, she moved to Marysville, Washington. Alice was wonderfully kind, thankful and humble women of God, who was loved by all who came to know her. She had a great sense of humor and expressed her love through words and generosity. Alice passed away peacefully on September 11, 2013 in Washington state and is now with her Lord in heaven. Alice is survived by her granddaughter, Robin Fettig, great-granddaughter, Elaine, and great-grandson, Connor Fettig. She will be especially missed by her extended family members, her nephew, Carrol and Sandy Lane, Carolyn and John Idhe, and Jeanette and Loren Carlander. She was preceded in death by her husband, Eddie Fisher, her daughter, Elaine Meduna, and sister, Josephine Lane.
Jesus said,

"Let not your heart, be troubled: you believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father’s house are many rooms; if it were not so would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And when I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. And you know the way I am going."

"I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father, but by me."

"Because I live, you will live also."
